DEDICATION

We are pleased to dedicate the 1977 Terra Mariae Medicus to those faculty members who, for their zeal and commitment to our education, have been chosen by our class to receive the yearly teaching awards. Their warmth and encouragement have added a personal dimension to our experience; their friendship is valued. Their example stands as a challenge for the future.

Can you all be quiet please? I have an announcement to make.

"We know nothing except the fact of our ignorance"

- Socrates

But she is in her grave, and, oh,
The difference to me? - Wordsworth

Abandon hope,

here.
- Dante

Beware

- Dryden

Ask me if
I care

I'm Fine.

There's nothing the matter with me
I'm just as healthy as I can be
I have arthritis in both my knees
And when I talk I talk with a wheeze
My pulse is weak and my blood is thin
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

Arch supports I have for my feet
Or I wouldn't be able to be on the street
Sleep is denied me night after night
And every morning I'm a sight
My Memory is failing and my head is in a spin
But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in.

The moral is as this tale we unfold
That for you or me who are growing old
It's better to say I'm fine with a grin
Than to let 'em know the shape we are in.

School of Medicine

KATHERINE ACKERMAN, M.D.
Mercy Hospital
Internal Medicine

Kathy is one of our past class presidents, well known for attempts to relieve us of Social and Preventive Medicine final exams. She plans a residency in Psychiatry at University of Maryland Hospital after her internship.

MICHAEL FRANCIS ADINOLFI, M.D.
Tulane University
Surgery

Mike graduated from St. Anselm's College and spent his first years of medical school at Guadalajara before transferring to Maryland. He plans a career in academic medicine, relaxing in his spare time with tennis, skiing, trap and skeet shooting and sailing.

ELLIOT ALESKOW, M.D.
Maryland General Hospital
Internal Medicine

Elliot received his undergraduate degree from College Park, where he refined his ability to procure old exams - a skill which served him well through four long years in Baltimore. His future plans are not firm, but at last report he is investigating the possibility of opening a chain of nursing homes.

MARK DOUGLAS ANDREWS, M.D.
Washington Adventists Hospital
Family Medicine

Mark met wife Susie at Duke while pursuing a B.S. in Psychology. He is a member of AOA and an early graduate with the Psych tract. Following completion of his residency and Susie's Master's in Plant Pathology, they look forward to setting up practice either in North Carolina or on Maryland's Eastern shore. Although he enjoys outpatient work, Mark comments, "Hospitals turn me off."

ANTHONY ALEXANDER ARZ, M.D.
St. Agnes Hospital
Pathology

Tony has many academic credits to his name - a Bachelor's in Chemistry from Princeton and a Master's from Yale. His spare time is spent with wife Leopoldine, and he enjoys reading, hiking and traveling. He plans a career in the Baltimore area.

RICHARD BACHARACH, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Psychiatry

Scratch graduated from Penn's Honors Psychology program and participated in the Psych tract while here. He and wife Ellen are going on in Psych but their ultimate destination is uncertain. He was part of the Sunday morning soccer contingent and also enjoys photography, camping and Sci Fi. He can't "think of any great epitaph," but he's glad it's finished.

JONATHAN NOAH BASS, M.D.
L.A. County Harbor General
Pediatrics

Jon graduated from Rochester with a degree in Psychology. He is a member of both the Psych tract and AOA. He has served electively with the Public Health Service at St. Elizabeth's in D.C. and on an Indian reservation in Oklahoma. He plans an academic career in both Peds and Child Psych (with a department chairmanship ultimately - ed.)

STUART BRUCE BELL, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

After his undergraduate work at College Park, Stu spent two years at Guadalajara before returning to the University of Maryland. He will stay in Baltimore for his residency and plans a practice in primary care. He's a nice, easy going guy whose interests include tennis, guitar, music and traveling.

RONALD SAMUEL BENENSON, M.D.
York Hospital
Flexible

Ron graduated from Johns Hopkins with a degree in Natural Sciences. He is a friendly, easy going guy who was a pleasure to work with on the wards. An avid lacrosse fan as well as a horse racing buff, he plans a general practice upon completion of his training.

MICHAEL PAUL BEY, M.D.
University of Connecticut
Family Practice

Mike is an engineer turned doctor from the University of Maryland. He is an avid sailor and spent as much free time as possible on the Eastern shore. Among his other interests are color photography and designing electronic dark room equipment. Wife Mary is a nurse at University Hospital. Mike leaves us with one thought, "Surf's up!"

DOUGLAS ALAN BOENNING, M.D.
Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
Pediatrics

A member of the Bolton Hill group, Doug will be entering a practice in pediatrics. He will be remembered for his joint parties with Bob and Terry as well as for the magician talents of his look alike brother. A large part of his time has been devoted to the renovation of his Victorian rowhouse.

JOSEPH LEE BRAUN, M.D.
Wilford Hall Medical Center
Anesthesia/Aerospace Medicine

As a member of the Psych tract, Joe began his residency early at Wilford Hall in San Antonio, Texas. He is a military man with an undergraduate degree in Engineering. His plane and his Porsche occupy some of his extracurricular hours. He is one of the "fortunate" few to have experienced the doctor-patient relationship from the cold end of the stethoscope.

MARC STEVEN BRESLER, M.D.
Kaiser Foundation Hospital
Family Practice

Marc received the Ciba Good Samaritan Award largely on the strength of his input to the class and his work at Tuerk House. He was elected into AOA in his junior year. He is completing his senior year on the wards of Hadassah Hospital in Israel where he hopes to return after a Malibu Beach residency.

DAVID ELLIOTT BRIGHT, M.D.
Grady Memorial Hospital
Surgical - Flexible

Dave, or "Notso" as he is known to his friends, received his Bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Duke University. He was the winner of the AOA Student Research Competition. He spent those empty hours while in medical school jogging, swimming, playing tennis and visiting penpals. Dave plans a career in Orthopedics and hopes to eventually buy a horse farm.

ROBERT JOSEPH BRUMBACK, M.D.
Temple University Hospital
Surgery

Bob is a Chemistry graduate from Washington & Lee University who plans a career as an orthopedist in sports medicine. This is perhaps a reflection of his interests in lacrosse, tubing, fishing and running. His father muses, "There's my son who wanted to grow up and be a doctor. So far he's only become a doctor."

GARY BRENT BURGEE, M.D.
Williamsport Hospital
Family Practice

Brent is a graduate from "The John" in Natural Sciences. He plans to have a rural practice, probably in New England. He's a man of many interests which include lacrosse, cabinet making, gardening and living the good life with wife Terry.

JEFFREY PAUL CAHILL, M.D.
John Peter Smith Hospital
Family Practice

Jeff is a Carnegie-Mellon graduate in Chemistry who plans a family practice in a small to medium sized town. His outside activities include singing in the Church Choir, tennis, Columbia soccer league, being an expert bridge player and camping. He was elected to AOA in his junior year. Jeff and wife Karen are happy to be moving to Texas to join their family.

STUART ALAN CHALEW, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Pediatrics

Stu joined our ranks after graduating from College Park in Zoology. He was in the Pediatric Tracking Program and plans a career in pediatrics, as well as a long happy life with wife Gail.

MARIE DICKSON CHATHAM, M.D.
Baltimore City Hospitals
Internal Medicine

Marie combines the sweetness of a Southern Belle with ambition and intelligence. She graduated from Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi. Her husband Franklin is currently a cardiology fellow at Johns Hopkins. She plans to combine a career and a family "someday." Marie wants an internal medicine practice, possibly subspecializing in pulmonary medicine. She may return to her home in Mississippi to set up practice.

DENNIS JOSEPH CHODNICKI, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

Dennis spent his undergraduate years at Mount St. Mary's College. He looks forward to private practice in internal medicine. His outside activities include working on the blood drawing team, camping and jogging. As an Ellicott City native, he is an avid supporter of the Colts and Orioles - win or lose.

ELWOOD ALEXANDER COBEY, M.D.
Tripler Army Hospital
Obstetrics-Gynecology

Elwood is an ex-engineer who looks forward to moving wife Mary-Lou and their three children to the sun, sand and water. While serving with the military in Honolulu, he plans to improve his sailing skills whenever the delivery suite is quiet. A member of AOA, he advises, "Never take yourself too seriously."

MAXIE TYRONE COLLIER, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Psychiatry

Maxie graduated from Vanderbilt and did graduate work in African Studies at Howard. Wife Betty cares for their six children while holding an Assistant Professorship in Economics at Federal City College. Maxie has been SNMA President as well as serving on the Student Council, the Curriculum Committee and Human Dimensions in Medical Education. A member of the Psych tract, he plans a private practice with some teaching in the Baltimore-Washington area.

GENE OLIVER CRAWFORD, M.D.
Washington Hospital Center
Obstetrics-Gynecology

Gene did his undergrad work at Oakwood College in Math and Chemistry and received his Master's in Mathematics from the University of Alabama. He and wife Rozena have three children: Michele (11), Gene (4) and Kristen (6 mos.). As he leaves us, Gene wishes "Bon Voyage University of Maryland." Gene plans to follow in the footsteps of Dr. Edwards, a prominent Washington obstetrician.

MICHAEL CHARLES CUNNINGHAM, M.D.
Florida Hospital
Family Practice

Mike is a quiet, sincere fellow who spent his undergraduate years at Mount St. Mary's College majoring in Biology. His future plans include enjoying the sunny weather in Florida, setting up a private practice, and continuing his hobbies of sketching and painting.

HOWARD MARC CUSHNER, M.D.
William Beaumont Hospital
Flexible

Howard is a College Park graduate destined for a flexible year in Royal Oak, Michigan. His future plans include a June wedding and a medical residency.

ALAN STEVEN DAVIS, M.D.
University of Pennsylvania
Surgery

Al's pre-med credentials include a Master's degree in Biology from Michigan State. While he's been here, Alan has served on numerous faculty-student committees, including the Deans Committee, Curriculum Committee, and Student Council, showing his concern for quality education. He was also elected to AOA after his third year, and has long been a member of Phi Delta Epsilon medical fraternity. His immediate plans include a surgery residency at the Univ. of Penn, and he hopes to be involved in teaching at a major university center.

ROBERT JOHN DAVIS, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Surgery

Bob is an outgoing, ambitious fellow who received his B.S. in Biology and Ph.D. in Anatomy from the University of Maryland. Bob plans to be a plastic surgeon. He spends his free time with wife Donna Marie or playing rugby with the Chesapeake Rugby Club.

WILLIAM JOSEPH DICHTEL, JR., M.D.
Baylor College of Medicine
Surgery

Bill is a Biology major from Johns Hopkins and a member of AOA. Bill plans to enter private practice in general surgery after fulfilling his army commitment. Bill's activities included a family practice preceptorship, fellowships in pediatrics and infectious diseases, and a surgery externship.

MICHAEL JOHN DOMANSKI, M.D.
Hershey Medical Center
Internal Medicine

Mike received his degree in Aerospace Engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology. It's too early to be sure of his plans, following a Penn State residency. He enjoys golf but reports he's had little time to devote to anything but medicine during the last four years.

GEORGE WALTER DUNCAN, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

George completed undergraduate work in Chemistry at Cornell University before joining our class. In his spare time, George works as a tennis instructor and plays in tournaments regularly. He travelled to Alaska for ambulatory medicine during the senior year.

STEPHEN KENNETH DYAL, M.D.
Mercy Hospital
Internal Medicine

Steve is a native of Greenbelt, Md. who did his undergraduate work in Physics at College Park. After a medical residency at Mercy Hospital, he plans to enter a group practice in internal medicine. He and wife Irene like to spend their extra hours with daughter Theresa.

WILLARDA VIRGINIA EDWARDS, M.D.
Greater Baltimore Medical Center
Internal Medicine

Willarda moved north to Baltimore following undergraduate work at the University of Texas in El Paso. She plans to spend four years in the Navy following her residency. Willarda served as class secretary through our four years.

RONA BETH EISEN, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Obstetrics-Gynecology

Rona completed three years of undergraduate training in Zoology at College Park before entering medical school. She and husband Stuart will be remaining in the Baltimore area while she pursues a residency in Ob-Gyn. Rona was elected to AOA in her junior year. Extracurricular activities include ceramics, biking and tennis.

GREGORY BERTRAM EMERY, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

Greg is a Loyola graduate with a degree in Biology. After an internship, Greg plans a residency in Anesthesiology, preferably on the west coast. He enjoys music and was lead singer for "Glossus." Other interests include cycling, volleyball and an occasional game of tennis.

RICHARD MARK EPSTEIN, M.D.
Grady Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

Rich received his undergraduate degree in Psychology from the University of Maryland. He will be traveling to Atlanta for his residency, after which he plans to practice internal medicine. Extracurricular activities include tennis, skiing and piano.

HARRY S. ETTER, M.D.
San Diego Naval Hospital
Internal Medicine

Harry graduated from New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology with a degree in chemistry. He and wife Mattie recently became parents with the birth of Kristin. Harry is an avid hunter and fisherman.

CLIFFORD STEPHEN FABER, M.D.
Washington Hospital Center
Internal Medicine

Cliff graduated from Emory University in Biology. His hobbies are camping and spelunking. He plans to become Board Certified in internal medicine and is uncertain of his plans thereafter.

FREDERIC THOMAS FARRA, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Internal Medicine

Rick, a former electrical engineer from College Park, plans a future as an internist or cardiologist away from the city. He and wife Barbara enjoy hiking, biking and antique shopping.

KENDALL REESE FAULKNER, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Internal Medicine

Kendall received her degree in Biology from Western Maryland College. She will intern at the "U" and plans a career in internal medicine. Kendall has become very adept at crossword puzzles during the past few years. She wants to be a concert pianist and looks forward to her first lesson.

JAMES FELD, M.D.
University of Miami Hospitals
Family Practice

Jim received his undergraduate degree in Psychology from UCLA. He will be moving south for his residency, and plans to practice family medicine in a location that is presently undetermined. He likes to spend his free time traveling.

RICHARD JAY FELDMAN, M.D.
York Hospital
Internal Medicine

Psychiatry

Sue is a graduate of University College. She plans at least one year of psychiatry residency before a two year stint with the Public Health Service. Uppermost in her interests are husband Jim and her children - Robin, Elissa and Erik. Summer sports, socializing and cake decorating occupy additional spare time.

DAVID K. TILLEY, M.D.
University of Maryland
Internal Medicine

Dave is a Loyola graduate with a degree in Chemistry. He spent his last semester of medical school at the University of Arizona in Tucson. Traveling is Dave's favorite pastime.

DAVID DUNCAN TINKER, M.D.
E. J. Meyer Hospital
Internal Medicine

Dave is an English major from Amherst College who sacrificed his literary career to study medicine at the U. He will be starting his medical residency in Buffalo, New York. He enjoys canoeing, sailing and "nondescript intellectual and artistic pursuits."

MICHELLE DIANNE UHL, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Psychiatry

Michelle received her undergraduate degree in Art History. She worked as class projectionist during the first two years of medical school. A member of AOA, Michelle will begin a residency in Psychiatry this summer.

NANCY ISABEL ULANOWICZ, M.D.
Union Memorial Hospital
Internal Medicine

Nancy graduated from Notre Dame in Biology. She spent several summers on Solomon's Island doing research in Marine Biology. Her future plans include a residency in Anesthesiology at the University of Pennsylvania and a "joyfilled" life with future husband Bob.

STEPHEN JAMES UTTS, M.D.
Mercy Hospital
Internal Medicine

Steve is a graduate of University of Maryland with a degree in Zoology. After residency, he will repay a four year obligation to the Air Force before entering a small group practice in the Annapolis area. He likes tennis, skiing and "playing the stereo loud."

MARK CLAYTON VACCARO, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Radiology

Mark did his undergraduate work at College Park as a Psychology major. He spent his summers working on the wards at NIH. Mark enjoys sailing and fishing. He plans a career in diagnostic radiology.

ELLEN VOLKMAN, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Psychiatry

Ellen received her Psychology degree from Clark University. She plans a career in Child Psych. Her interests are tennis and photography.

JONATHAN RICHARD WALBURN, M.D.
Tripler Army Medical Center
Flexible

Jon did his undergrad work in Biology at Washington and Jefferson College. He plans a career in pathology. He leaves us saying, "I had some good times and some bad times, but all in all, it was worth it, Aloha!"

ROBERT EDWARD WEISS, M.D.
St. Christopher's Hospital
Pediatrics

Bob is a Mathematician from Franklin and Marshall College. He was elected to AOA in his junior year. He will be moving to Philadelphia for his pediatrics residency.

BENNETT EVAN WERNER, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Internal Medicine

Ben is a Biology-Psychology graduate from Rice University. He and wife Michelle were class projectionists during our first two years. Ben enjoys photography and has almost completed work on a darkroom in their new home. He plans to follow his residency with a two year commitment to the Public Health Service.

KATHERINE CLENDENNING WHITE, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Pediatrics

Kay studied Biological Sciences at Wellesley College. Her many interests and activities include "reading, going for walks, socializing, making love and (rarely) writing poetry." Kay summarizes her outlook on life, "Happiness is not something to be actively sought; it just kind of happens to you along the way."

PATRICK WILLIAM WHITE, M.D.
St. Agnes Hospital
Internal Medicine

Pat was a Psychology major at College Park. After his residency, he plans to travel abroad before setting up a private practice in the Annapolis area.

JAMES THOMAS WILKIE, M.D.
York Hospital
Internal Medicine

Jim is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College who is returning to central Pennsylvania for his residency. He plans a career in general practice. "It's been a lot of fun, but all I really wanted was a cold beer," summarizes his current outlook.

ALBERT EDWARD WINYARD, III, M.D.
New York Infirmary
Internal Medicine

Al comes to the U. from College Park with a penchant for "chess, skydiving, motorcycling and women." On completion of an N.Y.C. residency, he plans four years as a Flight Surgeon for the Air Force. No specialization is anticipated.

ROBERT ARTHUR WISE, M.D.
University of Illinois Hospital
Internal Medicine

Bob graduated from Purdue University in Biology. He plans to enter neurology or psychiatry eventually.

> It is required of a man that he should share the action and passion of his time at peril of being judged not to have lived.
> - Oliver Wendell Holmes

"May life begin!"

BARRY ALAN WOHL, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Primary Care

"Barry came to us from the Honors Program at College Park. One of our younger members, he is best characterized as a quiet, thoughtful, gentle human being. He served as V.P. of the Phi Delta Epsilon medical fraternity and helped to organize the famed Sunday soccer games. An avid tennis and basketball player, Barry played as often as possible. During medical school, he began to ski, and now, after mastering the Rockies, insists on a trip at least once a year. Prior to graduation, he will travel out West and to Europe."

- B.W.

RICHARD JOSEPH ZANGARA, M.D.
Barnes Hospital Group
Internal Medicine

Rich received his degree in Life Science-Biology from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is a member of the Psych tract and President of AOA. Following his St. Louis residency and a fellowship, he and wife Donna Arlene plan to settle in New England.

STEVEN MURRAY ZEMEL, M.D.
Mercy Hospital
Internal Medicine

Steve graduated from College Park with a Zoology major. He plans a Baltimore residency in internal medicine. In his spare time, he can be found at the stadium or on the golf course.

STUART ALAN ZIPPER, M.D.
University of Maryland Hospital
Internal Medicine

A Duke graduate in Psychology, Zip (alias Carnac) served as our preclinical morale officer. Stuart had an interesting senior year, with electives in San Diego, San Francisco, London, and a six week tour of Europe. However, Stu says his greatest achievement in medical school was surviving a five man carpool for two years without any argument.

JAMES IRA ZISFEIN, M.D.
Washington D.C. Veterans Hospital
Internal Medicine

Jim spent his undergrad years at the University of Rochester majoring in biology. After his residency, he plans a career in clinical neurology.

COMPLETE HOSPITAL CARE

5 COORDINATED HOSPITALS FOR TOTAL CREATIVE HEALING

Brunswick Hospital Center offers a unique integration of highly specialized medical skills for comprehensive health care. Our General Hospital provides the nucleus for acute medical and surgical care and our Rehabilitation Hospital (physical medicine) treats long-term physical disabilities and other serious chronic illnesses. The homelike facilities of our Psychiatric Hospital provide for the mentally and emotionally afflicted, drug-addicted and those requiring custodial assistance. Our contemporary Nursing Home supplies post-operative and convalescent care—plus sustained geriatric domicile. Our fifth and newest hospital has been specifically created for the treatment and on-going recovery in alcoholism.

Truly, total health care through "creative healing".
